

Which document should you always bring when you are out driving?

☐ The last report from the Vehicle Inspection Company

☒ Driving licence

You must always have your driving licence with you when driving.

☐ Insurance certificate

☐ Registration certificate

With your category B driving licence, can you drive a motorhome?

☒ Yes, provided the kerb weight is not over 3,500 kg.

☐ No, I must have a category D driving licence.

☐ No, I must have a category C driving licence.

☒ Yes, provided the gross weight is not over 3,500 kg.

You may drive all private cars that have a gross weight of no more than 3,500 kg. A class 1 private car is a car that is built to carry passengers. A class 2 private car has, amongst other things, fixed places for beds. A motorhome is one example.

You have a driving license category B. Which vehicles, other than private car, are you allowed to drive?

Two-wheeled light and heavy motorcycles

Tractors and light goods vehicles

The total weight of a light truck is no more than 3.5 tonnes. And this is what you can drive with a category B driving licence.

Lorries with a total weight of over 3.5 tonnes

Trailers, regardless of weight

With your category B driving licence, you can tow a light trailer. However, what is a light trailer?

☒ A trailer with a gross weight of no more than 750 kg.

Primarily, a light trailer has a gross weight of no more than 750 kg. However, its gross weight MAY be over 750 kg provided that the combined gross weight of car and trailer is not over 3,500 kg.

☐ A trailer with a kerb weight of no more than 500 kg.

☐ A trailer with a gross weight of no more than 3,500 kg.

How long is the probationary period when you first have a driving licence?

☐ 5 years.

☐ 4 years.

☐ 3 years.

☒ 2 years.

With your first driving licence, there is a probationary period of 2 years. If your driving licence is cancelled in this period, you can only get it back when you have passed the theory and practical tests again. For categories A1, A2, A and B, you must also do the risk training again. There is no probationary period with an ☐ 1 year.

In Sweden, the trial period of a driving licence is for two years. If the licence is revoked during this time, what must one do to get a new one?

☐ A new driving test is required only if the trial period is more than a year

☒ A new driving test is required no matter how long the trial period is

Risk educations, the theory test and the on-road test must then all be done again. The trial period will not be extended if you expand your driving license with for example, BE or C-privileges.

☐ It is enough to just do the risk educations, no matter how long the trial period is

To gain more driving experience, people in Sweden are allowed to have private driving practice. However, to do this, both you and your private instructor must have had training. How can you be sure that the instructor is approved to take you out for driving practice?

☒ The instructor must be able to show me an official permit.

It is vital that you know the instructor has attended a course and then applied for, and received, permission to take you out for driving practice. Courses can be taken at most traffic schools and applications can be made via Transportstyrelsen.se.

☐ It is enough if the instructor has held a driving licence for five years. He or she does not need a special permit to take me out for practice.

☐ If the instructor says he or she has done a training course, I can be sure.

You have a B license. Which vehicles can you drive?

Passenger car with a coupled trailer

Two-wheel light and heavy motorcycle

Heavy lorry with attached light trailer

Motor vehicles class 1 and three-wheeled motorcycle

You can also drive a passenger car or light truck, with a maximum total weight of 3.5 tons, light trailers, tractors and more.

What is the maximum number of passenger seats allowed in a private car?

☐ 4

☐ 6

☒ 8

The driver is not counted in the eight. So, in total, nine people are permitted in a car.

☐ 12

You have a category B licence. Which vehicle can you drive?

A heavy lorry without a coupled trailer

A car with a coupled light trailer

You can drive a car with a light trailer provided that these vehicles together do not exceed 3.5 tonnes.

A two-wheeled light motorcycle

What is the definition of a heavy lorry?

Service weight over 3.5 tons

Total weight over 3.5 tons

Total weight is kerb weight + maximum load.

Gross weight over 3.5 tons

Taxation weight over 3.5 tons

You lend your vehicle to a person who you know does not have a driving licence. Who can be punished for this?

Both me and the person who borrowed the vehicle

Helping others to drive illegally is punishable.

Only the person who borrowed the vehicle

Only me

